Tri-County Health Care clinics return to normal hours

WADENA, Minn. – June 1, 2020 – The Tri-County Health Care clinics in Bertha, Henning and Verndale are returning to normal hours of operation, effective June 1. The Bertha and Henning clinics are open Monday-Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and see patients for primary care. The Verndale clinic is open Monday-Wednesday and Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and remains a clinic for specialty services.

The clinics originally had a change of hours due to the COVID-19 crisis. Tri-County Health Care has added new guidelines and protective measures to ensure patients are able to safely meet with their providers.

Patients may call 218-631-3510 to schedule an appointment.
