Three TCHC staff receive Foundation scholarships

WADENA, Minn. – Oct. 8, 2020 – The Tri-County Health Care Foundation awarded $2,000 Marquardt-Prindle scholarships to three staff members at Tri-County Health Care. The scholarships have been awarded to Amy Kine, Medley Shamp and Sarah Wallgren.

Kine, Wadena, is attending Phoenix University for a Bachelor’s Degree in Accounting. She currently works at Tri-County as a senior accountant in the finance department.

Shamp, Wadena, is attending the University of Mary in Bismark for her Master of Science in Nursing. She currently works for Tri-County as Director of Clinic Operations.

Wallgren, New York Mills, is attending Walden University for a Master of Science in Nursing. She currently works at Tri-County as a registered nurse in the Wadena Clinic.

The Bernadine Marquardt and Margaret Prindle Scholarship was established in 2010 as an endowment memorial from the two sisters and long-time Tri-County Hospital employees. Marquardt worked as a licensed practical nurse at Tri-County Hospital for 46 years; she retired in 1986. Prindle retired from Tri-County Hospital in 1991 after 48 years of service to the dietary department.

The scholarship helps Tri-County Health Care employees fulfill their educational goals. Eligibility is not limited to clinical studies; all programs and degree levels are applicable.
