Brett Brockpahler receives Jim Lawson Memorial Scholarship

WADENA, Minn. – Sept. 28, 2017 – The Tri-County Health Care Foundation recently awarded a $1,000 Jim Lawson Memorial Scholarship to Brett Brockpahler of Sebeka. Brockpahler is the daughter of Rick and Melanie Brockpahler.

The Jim Lawson Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of Jim Lawson, administrator of Tri-County Hospital from 1980 to 1995. The purpose is to encourage and promote qualified individuals from the hospital’s service area to pursue an advanced or graduate level health care career. The scholarship is awarded annually to one student who meets the advanced qualifications.

Brockpahler is in her first year at the University of Jamestown Physical Therapy Program in Fargo, North Dakota.

ABOUT TRI-COUNTY HEALTH CARE FOUNDATION

The Tri-County Health Care Foundation is a private charity established in 1994 by the hospital to attract and administer charitable funds for the benefit of the communities and surrounding areas served by Tri-County Health Care. Tax deductible gifts support education, technology, patient care and equipment. Financial donations stay local and have a direct and lasting impact on your family, friends and neighbors.
