Michelle Allred receives TCHC scholarship

WADENA, Minn. – Aug. 27, 2019 – The Tri-County Health Care Foundation awarded a $2,000 Marquardt-Prindle scholarship to Michelle Allred of Bluffton. Allred is attending Walden University for a Master of Science in Nursing. She currently works at Tri-County as a registered nurse in the surgical department.

The Bernadine Marquardt and Margaret Prindle Scholarship was established in 2010 as an endowment memorial from long-time Tri-County Hospital employees and sisters Marquardt and Prindle. Marquardt worked as a licensed practical nurse at Tri-County Hospital for 46 years; she retired in 1986. Prindle retired from Tri-County Hospital in 1991 after 48 years of service to the dietary department.

The scholarship helps Tri-County Health Care employees fulfill their educational goals. Eligibility is not limited to clinical studies; all programs and degree levels are applicable.
