Swisse, Crider awarded Marquardt-Prindle scholarships

WADENA, Minn. – July 19, 2018 – The Tri-County Health Care Foundation awarded $2,000 Marquardt-Prindle scholarships to Thane Swisse of Deer Creek and Dustin Crider of Miltona. Swisse is attending the University of Minnesota Duluth for a biology/pre-med degree, and Crider is attending North Dakota State College of Science for a paramedic degree.

The Bernadine Marquardt and Margaret Prindle Scholarship was established in 2010 as an endowment memorial from long-time Tri-County Hospital employees and sisters Marquardt and Prindle. Marquardt worked as a licensed practical nurse at Tri-County Hospital for 46 years; she retired in 1986. Prindle retired from Tri-County Hospital in 1991 after 48 years of service to the dietary department.

The scholarship helps Tri-County Health Care employees fulfill their educational goals. Eligibility is not limited to clinical studies; all programs and degree levels are applicable.
