
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Emergency medicine physician joins Tri-County Health Care

WADENA, Minn. – Sept. 5, 2018 – Nate Ronning, M.D., has joined the Tri-County Health Care emergency department. Ronning specializes in emergency medicine and is board certified by the American Board of Emergency Medicine.

Ronning attended Concordia College and Ross University and completed residency at the University of South Florida. Previously, he worked for Tampa General Hospital in Tampa, Florida; Sarasota Memorial Hospital in Sarasota, Florida; and Essentia Health in Detroit Lakes.

A native of Detroit Lakes, Ronning and his wife have six children and two dogs. During his time off, he loves spending as much time with his family as possible.

Ronning joins Tri-County Health Care’s four current emergency department physicians, Dennis Faith, M.D.; Rachel Redig, M.D.; Ryan Scott, D.O.; and Amadin Osayomore, M.D. Tri-County’s emergency department is now fully staffed by Tri-County-employed doctors, two of which – Ronning and Redig – are board certified in emergency medicine.

ABOUT TRI-COUNTY HEALTH CARE

Tri-County Health Care is a private, not-for-profit health care system located in Wadena, Minnesota. It offers care services such as minimally invasive surgery, cancer care, diagnostic imaging, obstetrics and rehabilitation. Tri-County operates a 25-bed hospital and medical clinic in Wadena, as well as six satellite clinics and three physical therapy clinics across Todd, Wadena and Otter Tail counties. Satellite clinic locations include Henning, Bertha, Ottertail, Sebeka, Verndale and Baxter. Visit TCHC.org.

###

