Bite Size Conversation: Living Will & Health Care directives

WADENA, Minn. – April. 19, 2022 – The Tri-County Health Care Foundation is hosting another Bite Size Conversation on May 2. The topic will focus on living will documentation and health care directives.

Both sessions will feature Jenny Doll, a social worker at Tri-County Health Care, and John Lindblom, DO. Doll and Dr. Lindblom will be covering important topics about officiating medical care directives. Families are encouraged to attend. A small meal will be served during each session.

The Bite Size Conversation is split into two one-hour sessions. The first session will be at 3:30 p.m. and the other at 5:30 p.m. The event will be hosted at the Little Round Still in Wadena. The event is free, and registration is required. Participants can register at TCHC.org/events.
