David Fjeldheim completes advanced MHA trustee certification

WADENA, Minn. – Feb. 03, 2021– Tri-County Health Care Board Member David Fjeldheim recently completed advanced comprehensive certification training through the Minnesota Hospital Association. The training is designed to improve the leadership skills of trustees serving as healthcare board members.

Fjeldheim’s advanced training focused on heightened governing education, which spurs innovation and accountability within a health care system.

“Tri-County, in cooperation with the Minnesota Hospital Association, offers a broad range of educational opportunities for our volunteer governing board to help them be informed of the complexities of health care governance. Dave and the Tri-County board have demonstrated their commitment to providing the best possible strategic guidance for our organization. I want to personally thank and recognize Dave’s efforts to achieve advanced certification,” said Joel Beiswenger, President and CEO of Tri-County Health Care.

Fjeldheim has been a serving board member since 2010. He is also the Superintendent of the Sebeka Public School System.
