COVID-19 testing supply shortage

WADENA, Minn. – Sept. 13, 2021 – Tri-County Health Care is currently experiencing a shortage of COVID-19 testing supplies. Due to the national testing supply shortage, many facilities are experiencing similar shortages. Rapid tests have been significantly impacted.

Rapid tests are reserved for Tri-County Health Care patients based on medical needs due to the low supply. Receiving tests results in 24 to 48 hours cannot be guaranteed.

The Wadena Clinic is the main location for COVID-19 testing. Please utilize the COVID hotline for scheduling an appointment: 218-631-5205.
